"Equestrians who use Tai Chi are able to identify and correct structural misalignments and unnecessary use of force that distract or impel the horse's ability to carry out movements."

"...The tools that I have acquired from working with James Shaw have proven to be the best return on my investment as a rider and instructor. The Tai Chi principals combined with James' comprehensive teaching style has proven to be the most valuable instruction that I've ever experienced."

Susie Hoffman, Peacock, Grand Prix level competitor and USDF Certified Instructor, CA

Internationally renown clinician and author of Ride From Within
